

ONE CENT--THE DAY BOOK--ONE CENT

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Under auspices of Workers' institute, John Cowper Powys will lecture on Dostoevsky and Nietzsche, at West Side auditorium, Taylor and Racine av., tonight, 8:15 p. m. Admission 15 cents.

Jim Larkin, Dublin, proposes to hold demonstration to raise funds in aid of Irish labor unions' crisis. Organization committee will meet, at Dearborn hotel, 8 p. m., tonight.

Dr. Shmariah Levin, Jewish scholar and orator, member first Russian duma, will speak on "Present Condition of the Jew and His Hope for the Future," at Douglas Park auditorium, Thursday evening.

Judge Frank P. Sadler will talk on "The Human Race—Can It Be Civilized or Will It Remain Savage?" at Sears-Roeback Y. M. C. A., Friday, 8 p. m.

24th ward Socialists will hold bunco party, Friday evening, Lower Social Turner hall. Dancing. Admission 10 cents.

Clothing Cutters and Trimmers' ass'n, Local 61, A. C. W. of A., will give dance, Douglas Park auditorium, Saturday, Jan. 15. Fine music.

Modernist club will hereafter meet Sundays, 2:30 p. m., Constellation Temple, Byron and Robey. Next Sunday's topic: "Pope Pius X. and Progress."

Society of Anthropology meets Sunday, 2:30 p. m., Corinthian hall, Masonic temple. Mrs. Minco S. Jones speaks: "For Temperance and Personal Liberty; Against Prohibition and Hypocrisy."

Brandon, Man.—Twelve workmen on Canadian Pacific railway work train, cleaning snow from yards, were run down and killed by yard engine that had just gathered speed for run out of yards.

BITS OF NEWS

Harry Simms, Chicago, brother of former U. S. Dist. Att'y F. W. Simms, has escaped from Mexican Villista bandits after harrowing experiences.

Jimmy Walsh, 8, ran into his house, 3136 Normal av., from play. Found mother dead in pool of blood, father, Patrick Walsh, lying unconscious with razor-slashed neck. Father accused of crime.

Douglas Todd, 14, Salt Lake City, gave self up to police because hungry. Said he ran away from home with father's check book and lived by forging checks till they were gone.

Federal authorities probing charge against U. S. com'r that he collected too much for issuing passport.

Residents of Englewood held mass meeting. Want new school.

Hymen Epstein, lost fight in circuit court of appeals to reverse Judge Landis' order disbarring him.

Pat Walsh, 3136 Normal av., killed wife and cut own throat yesterday. In hospital.

Judge Scully favors plans of Judge Pinckney and Judge Fisher to appoint commission to study welfare of boys.

Colesboro, N. C. — Mob lynched John Richards, negro, who confessed he murdered A. T. Curley, wealthy farmer.

CHICAGO GRAIN.—Grain and provisions up: May wheat close, $1.28.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — Mexican stocks slightly off. General list firm.

WEATHER FORECAST

Decidedly colder tonight and Thursday, with a severe cold wave and northwest gale; lowest temperature, 5 to 10 below; snow tonight; Thursday probably fair. Temperature Tuesday: Highest, 31; lowest, 29.